NOTES ON REGISTRATION OF A FOOD BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENT

What is registration?

Food business operators are required by law to register their establishments (i.e. each separate unit of their food businesses) with the local competent authority. Registration allows local authorities to keep an up to date list of all the premises in their area so they can visit them when they need. The frequency of the visits will depend on the type of business

Who needs to register?

Anyone who runs a food business is required to register that business.

On sites where two or more food business establishments exist which are under the control of the same food business operator, e.g. in a shopping centre in which there are two or more food business establishments under the control of the same food business operator, each establishment must have a separate registration form.

On sites where two or more food business establishments exist which are under the control of different food business operator, e.g. in a supermarket which may have a coffee shop under the control of a different food business operator each operator must register their premises.

How do I register?

Registration is by the completion of this form and returning it to the London Borough of Sutton at the address below. There is no charge for registration and it cannot be refused. Receipt of your application will be acknowledged.

If you run businesses in other areas registration forms must be sent to the authority in which the business is situated.

You must provide as much information on the form as you are able. If you have any queries please contact the London Borough of Sutton on the phone number below

What happens to the information given on the form?

The authority keeps a record of all food business establishments that have registered with them. The list contains the following information about each food business

1. Name of food business operator
2. Name of the food business
3. Address of the food business establishment
4. Particulars and nature of the food business

The authority may give or send a copy of their list or any entry on it to any person who makes a request for such information.
